

Estonian Diabetes Center

Founded in 2004, the Estonian Diabetes Center Ltd. is a private clinic which offers professional service and therapy in the field of endocrinology. The work at the clinic is organised in accordance with international standards, resulting in innovativeness and proven efficacy of work.

The clinic offers services to people insured by the Estonian Health Insurance Fund as well as to patients who pay for their treatment themselves. Our commitment to quality ensures the best treatment service for all patients, irrespective of their payment method.

The Estonian Diabetes Center Ltd. has been a contractual partner to the Estonian Health Insurance Fund since 2004. We work closely with professional associations and the social sector (the Estonian Diabetes Association, regional associations of people with diabetes et al.). We regularly invest in professional training, thereby ensuring innovative and modern treatment for all of our patients.

Our friendly personnel are trained to offer quick and modern solutions to our patients.

We are located in the suburb of Mustamäe in Tallinn, at Sütiste tee 17 (on the second floor of the building next to PERH or the North Estonia Medical Centre).
